Dear Dave,

It is with great pleasure that I enthusiastically endorse the exceptional service provided by you and your team at The Cayemitte Group. Since 2010, you have been a trusted associate and advisor whose guidance I have always valued.

When Luis Segarra and I co-founded The Crescent Companies, comprised of Crescent Consulting, Crescent Energy and Crescent Building Services, we knew that securing appropriate insurance coverages would be essential to our business growth and success. Since the outset, The Cayemitte Group has played an integral part in that success by adeptly responding to all of The Crescent Companies property and casualty, professional liability, bonding and specific construction-related insurance needs. You take the time to understand all necessary aspects of our business and to “dive deep” to ensure that we are properly protected.

I commend the outstanding TCG team of seasoned insurance professionals who assist in delivering this top-notch service. You and your team handle several hundred certifications per year and all claims issues as well as provide excellent administrative, back office and consultative support. I have the peace of mind in knowing that all of the elements of our complex insurance platform will be handled in a timely manner with remarkable attention to detail. Above all, I value the integrity upon which our business partnership is based.

I would be happy to speak to any prospective clients regarding the important benefits of a partnership with The Cayemitte Group when evaluating their insurance or bonding needs.

Sincerely,

Rohan Defreitas
President
Crescent Consulting
